Routine Notes.

[To be used only for notes, requisitions, etc., not intended for permanent record.]

The quarterly return of appointments was prescribed in M/s Maconochie's D.O. do. 108, dated 15th April 1908. It was therein directed that a statement should be prepared and submitted every quarter, showing therein all appointments and promotions made in the General and Revenue Secretariat during the quarter.

The returns submitted since that date, are put up for reference.

In these returns all appointments and promotions made are grouped together - not with with any special reference to seniority or merit but merely according to Grades.

In preparing the quarterly returns the Office generally collects the information from the Acquittance Roll in the order in which it is available in it. Until now, the Office has been under the impression, - in the absence of any definite orders on the subject, that the purposes of the return would be served, if the appointments and promotions made during the quarter

Further, the final relative rank of the candidates is not, as a rule, decided at the time of appointment, as all new appointments are made on probation. The question will be decided after the candidate has passed
